

POLICE FORCE,
(DETECTIVE BRANCH)

687
Shanghai Municipal Council.

November 2nd

1916

FILED

Sir,

The body of the late General Huang Hsing was encoffined at his residence on 1st inst. All prominent rebels and a large number of Japanese attended. It is already proposed to hold a large memorial service in honour of the deceased at some future date.

About 50 of the minor rebel leaders held a meeting at an Industrial Institute for the Poor Frenchtown at 3 p.m. on 1st inst. It was decided to address a letter to the Chamber of Commerce demanding $20.00 each for natives of Yunnan and $10 each for Hupeh men besides a passage ticket to their homes.

One of the rebel leaders named Kau Yih 高-一 is reported to be searching for suitable quarters in the vicinity of Pingchao Road in which he will establish a new Society for the promotion of the welfare of rebels.

The Police in the City and suburbs were paid on the 1st inst.

One hundred automatic pistols and 5,000 rounds of ammunition were sent from the Arsenal to Loongwha on the 1st inst.

Your Obedient Servant,

Wm. A. Strong

Chief Detective Inspector.

Captain Superintendent of Police.